Aircraftman Second Class Roland Bull (1696303) RAFVR d 14 August 1946

The death notice in the Barrow News 17 August 1946 was very brief. There was no accompanying information.

BULL.—August 14, of 6, Glasgow-st., Barrow, Roland Bull, 45.

Son of Edward and Lucy Bull, of

1696303 AIRCRAFTMAN 2ND CL
R. BULL
ROYAL AIR FORCE
14TH AUGUST 1946 AGE 45

IN HEAVENLY LOVE ABIDING

Barrow-in-Furness; husband of Annie Bull, of Barrow-in-Furness. (CWGC)

The stone has been replaced between January 2013 (left) and September 2019 (right).

Roland Bull married Annie Ackroyd at the Methodist Chapel, Marsh Street, Barrow in 1927. They had one son, Roland Allan Bull, born 1928, who is commemorated by a black plate at the bottom of the stone. (Cumbria BMD)

From Ancestry at the time of the 1901 Census, Roland (4 months) was living at 25 Harrogate Street with his father Edward (28), a general labourer, born in Matson(?), Warwicks; mother Lucy (27) born Barrow; sister Emily (7) and brother Wilfred (3).

In the 1911 Census Edward Bull (38) is a general labourer employed by the Corporation; Lucy (37) has been married to him for 18 years, had six children (four still living). Wilfred (13), an errand boy for International Tea, Roland (10), scholar, and Doris (6) are living at home, which is still 25 Harrogate Street.

In the 1939 Register, Roland (born 6 November 1900), a tailor's shop assistant, Annie (born 15 October 1901) and Roland A. Bull (born 15 October 1928) are living at Annie's parents' house at 6, Glasgow Street, Barrow. James Ackroyd (DoB 19 March 1875) is a fitter, Agnes Ackroyd (15 Dec 1876) an unpaid domestic worker.

Roland seems to have died in the Leeds Registration district.

If anyone has further information about the circumstances of his death, please let me know and I will amend this entry.
