

Neale Family

Another interesting stone. The carving is very clear, and has lasted well.

Of course, I started out hoping to find more about John Neale, drowned in Laguna, Mexico. Laguna seems to be a landlocked province of Mexico, with a large number of lakes. Although there are records from Mexico on Ancestry, I could find no reference to John Neale's death.

According to Lancashire OnLine Parish Clerk, William Neale, son of Henry Neale, was baptised in Urswick 13 April 1782.

Marriage Bond No. 4602 (Ancestry) signed by Rev. Sunderland and dated 9 January 1812, says that William Neale, aged 29, of Bardsea, Mariner, intends to marry Agnes Crowdson, aged 23 years, of Greenslack, Kirkby Ireleth in the parish Church of Broughton (in-Furness). The marriage took place of 19th January. Agnes Croudson (sic), of Greenslack, parents William & Margaret Croudson, was baptised in that church on 22 March 1788. (Lancashire OnLine Parish Clerk)

From the Lancashire OnLine Parish Clerk source comes the following:

Henry Neale, baptised 2 November 1812. Born 19 October. Son of William Neale and Agnes. William is identified as a Mariner.

Margaret, baptised 3 July 1814.

William, baptised 13 February 1816.

John, baptised 6 September 1817.

Richard, baptised 26 May 1819.

Thomas, baptised 24 November 1820.

William Neale must have made money from being a Mariner, since by 1832 he has the vote due to owning freehold land in Much Urswick. (Ancestry, Electoral Register for Lancashire).

In the 1841 Census, living in the Parish of Urswick (no house/road identified) were William Neale (55), Maltster; Agnes Neale (50); Henry Neale (25), Farmer; Thomas Neale (20), no occupation recorded; and Jane Kendal (15), servant. Ages in the 1841 Census were rounded.

The 1851 Census provides a little more detail. Living in Much Urswick are Agnes Neale (63), Widow, Farmer of 75 acres; 3 labourers, born Broughton; Margaret Neale (36) Unmarried, Farmer's Daughter, born Bardsea; Agnes Neale (23), Farmer's Daughter, born Urswick; Richard Neale (31), Son, Maltster, born Bardsea; Thomas Kitchen (48), Farm Servant, born Dalton; Lancelot Rigg (29) Unmarried, Farm Servant, born Hawkshead; John Fawcett (15), Farm Servant, born Cockermouth.

By the time of the 1861 Census, and still in Much Urswick, Agnes Neale (73), Widow, is now a Landed Proprietor. Sharing the house is Elizabeth (29) Daughter, born Urswick; and House Servant Mary Winder (14), born Urswick.

The National Probate Calendar (Index of Wills and Administrations) 1870 (note year!) has:

NEALE Margaret 16 July Letters of Administration of the Personal estate and effects of Margaret Neale late of Urswick in the Parish of Urswick in the County of Lancaster Spinster deceased who died 28 January 1853 at Urswick aforesaid were granted at Lancaster to Agnes Satterthwaite of Urswick aforesaid Widow the Sister and one of the Next of Kin of said Deceased she having been first sworn.

Of William Neale, the 1851 Census has William Neal (35) (no 'e') living on Duke Street, Ulverston. He is an Innkeeper. He lives with his wife Mary Neal (38), Inn Keeper, born Hawkshead, Lancs; and their Ulverston born children: Sarah Hodgson (15), Mary Hodgson (11), John Hodgson (13), William Neal (3) and Elizabeth Neal (6 months). There are four servants and a visitor staying on Census night.

William Neale had married Mary Hodgson in Ulverston Parish Church on 18 April 1847.

In the 1861 Census William Neal (45) Innkeeper, born Bardsey (sic), Lancs, is living on Dalton Gate, Ulverston, with wife Mary Neal (48), Innkeeper's Wife, born Hawkshead; and several children: William Neale (13), Elizabeth Neale (10), Joseph Neal (8), Thomas Neal (5), and step-daughter Jane Hodgson (23) Unmarried, Servant, all born in Ulverston. There are two other servants, and two visitors. The next address in the Census is Hope & Anchor Yard, so it is likely that the Neale's are running the Hope & Anchor.

William Neale was buried in Ulverston on 2 May 1862.

Following Richard Neale tells us that in the 1871 Census he is unmarried, living in Much Urswick, aged 51, born Bardsea, Lancs, and is a farmer and owner of 20 acres. He shares a household with Agnes Satterthwaite (43), Widow, Sister, born Urswick; Elizabeth Neale (39), Unmarried, Sister, born Urswick; Margaret Logan (61) Married, Cousin, born Bardsea, Lancs.; and Servant Mary Cole (27), born Broughton, Lancs.

Richard Neale and Agnes Satterthwaite are still sharing a house in Much Urswick in the 1881 Census, though their servant, and the only other resident, is Annie Pickthall (18), born Ulverston, Lancs.

Agnes Neale married John Sutton Satterthwaite in Urswick on 16 June 1858. (Lancashire OnLine Parish Clerk). He is described as a banker, with his father John Satterthwaite being an Ironmonger. The bride's father, William Neale Snr., is described as a Yeoman.

In the 1861 Census Agnes (33) and John Satterthwaite (35), Banker, born Ulverston, were living at Church walk, Ulverston, with their House Servant Mary A. Marr (22), born Millom, Cumberland.

John Sutton Satterthwaite died in Bangor, Wales, on 24 October 1867, and was buried at Urswick on 28 October. His Will was proved by the oaths of "Richard Neale of Urswick ... Gentleman and George Remington of Ulverston aforesaid Gentleman the Executors." National Probate Calendar (Index of Wills and Administrations) 1868

By the time of the 1891 Census sisters Elizabeth Neale (63), Head, Living on Own Means, and Agnes Satterthwaite (59), also Living on Own Means, were sharing a house at Brow End, Urswick, along with their House Servant, Sophia Park (26), born Haltwhistle, Northumberland. Agnes Satterthwaite's death was registered in Ulverston in September 1914.
