Son of the late Isaac and Margaret Burrow. Pupil of the Ulverston Victoria Grammar School and Student of St. John's College, York. Assistant Master at Dalton (Church of England) School. The Registration form has a typed Sgt., crossed out and replaced with Pvt. (Since he is pictured in a Sergeant's uniform presumably he was at least an Acting-Sergeant – RMW) He is buried at Guillemont Road Cemetery, Guillemont. His sister, Miss I. Burrow, of Lane House, Dalton, asked for the message "He died that we in peace might live" be inscribed on his headstone. CWGC

1891 Census the Burrow family were living at 2 Market Place, next to the Cavendish Arms. The household was Isaac Burrow (46), head, joiner and builder, born Warton; Margaret (38), born Dalton; Isabella H.
